A. Man's chief and highest end is to glorify God,<sup>a</sup> and fully to enjoy him for ever.<sup>b</sup>

Q. 2. How doth it appear that there is a God?

A. The very light of nature in man, and the works of God, declare plainly that there is a God;<sup>c</sup> but his Word and Spirit only, do sufficiently and effectually reveal him unto men for their salvation.<sup>d</sup>

1. <sup>a</sup>Rom. xi. 36. For of him, and through him, and to him, are all things: to whom be glory for ever. Amen. 1 Cor. x. 31. Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God.

<sup>b</sup>Psa. lxxiii. 24-26. Thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and afterward receive me to glory. Whom have I in heaven but thee? and there is none upon earth that I desire besides thee. My flesh and my heart faileth: but God is the strength of my heart, and my portion for ever. John xvii. 22, 24. And the glory which thou gavest me I have given them; that they may be one, even as we are one.—Father, I will that they also, whom thou hast given me, be with me where I am; that they may behold my glory, which thou hast given me.

2. <sup>c</sup>Rom. i. 19, 20. Because that which may be known of God is manifest in them; for God hath showed it unto them. For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse. See Psa. xix. 1-3.

<sup>d</sup>1 Cor. ii. 9, 10. But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him. But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God. 2 Tim. iii. 15-17. And that from a child thou

Q. 3. What is the Word of God?

A. The holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testament are the Word of God,<sup>e</sup> the only rule of faith and obedience.<sup>f</sup>

Q. 4. How doth it appear that the Scriptures are the Word of God?

A. The Scriptures manifest themselves to be the Word of God, by their majesty<sup>g</sup> and purity;<sup>h</sup> by the consent of all the parts,<sup>i</sup> and the scope of the whole, which is to give hast known the holy Scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus. All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works.

3. *2 Tim. iii. 16. All Scripture is given by inspiration of God. 2 Pet. i. 19-21. We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day-star arise in your hearts: Knowing this first, that no prophecy of the Scripture is of any private interpretation. For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost.

<sup>f</sup> Isa. viii. 20. To the law and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them. Luke xvi. 29, 31. They have Moses and the prophets: let them hear them. —If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead. Gal. i. 8, 9. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed. See 2 Tim. iii. 15-17.

4. * Hos. viii. 12. I have written to him the great things of my law, but they were counted as a strange thing. 1 Cor. ii. 6, 7. Howbeit we speak wisdom among them that are perfect: yet not the wisdom of this world, nor of the princes of this world, that come to nought: But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, which God ordained before the world unto our glory. Psa. cxix. 18, 129. Open thou mine eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of thy law.—Thy testimonies are wonderful: therefore doth my soul keep them.

<sup>h</sup> Psa. xii. 6. The words of the Lord are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times. Psa. cxix. 140. Thy word is very pure; therefore thy servant loveth it.

<sup>i</sup> Luke xxiv. 27. And beginning at Moses and all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the Scriptures the things concerning himself. Acts x. 43. To him give all the prophets witness, that all glory to God ;<sup>k</sup> by their light and power to convince and convert sinners, to comfort and build up believers unto salvation :<sup>l</sup> but the Spirit of God bearing witness by and with the Scriptures in the heart of man, is alone able fully to persuade it that they are the very Word of God.<sup>m</sup>

Q. 5. What do the Scriptures principally teach ?

A. The Scriptures principally teach, what man is to believe concerning God, and what duty God requires of man.<sup>n</sup> through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins. Acts xxvi. 22. Having therefore obtained help of God, I continue unto this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying none other things than those which the prophets and Moses did say should come.

<sup>k</sup>Rom. xvi. 25-27. Now to him that is of power to stablish you according to my gospel, and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery, which was kept secret since the world began, But now is made manifest, and by the Scriptures of the prophets, according to the commandment of the everlasting God, made known to all nations for the obedience of faith : To God only wise, be glory through Jesus Christ for ever. Amen. See 2 Cor. iii. 6-11.

<sup>l</sup>Acts xviii. 28. For he mightily convinced the Jews, and that publicly, showing by the Scriptures that Jesus was Christ. Heb. iv. 12. For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. James i. 18. Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth. Psal. xix. 7-9. The law of the LORD is perfect, converting the soul : the testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple. The statutes of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart : the commandment of the LORD is pure, enlightening the eyes. The fear of the LORD is clean, enduring for ever : the judgments of the LORD are true and righteous altogether. Rom. xv. 4. For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope. Acts xx. 32. And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified.

<sup>m</sup>John xvi. 13, 14. Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth :—and he will show you things to come. He shall glorify me : for he shall receive of mine, and shall show it unto you. See 1 John ii. 20, 27.

<sup>n</sup>John xx. 31. But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God ; and that believing ye might have

Q. 77. Wherein do justification and sanctification differ ?

A. Although sanctification be inseparably joined with justification,<sup>s</sup> yet they differ, in that God in justification imputeth the righteousness of Christ;<sup>t</sup> in sanctification his Spirit infuseth grace, and enableth to the exercise thereof;<sup>u</sup> in the former, sin is pardoned;<sup>v</sup> in the other, it is subdued;<sup>z</sup> the one doth equally free all believers from the revenging wrath of God, and that perfectly in this life, that they never fall into condemnation;<sup>y</sup> the other is

Q. 78. Whence ariseth the imperfection of sanctification in believers?

A. The imperfection of sanctification in believers ariseth from the remnants of sin abiding in every part of them, and the perpetual lustings of the flesh against the spirit; whereby they are often foiled with temptations, and fall into many sins,<sup>c</sup> are hindered in all their spiritual services,<sup>d</sup> and their best works are imperfect and defiled in the sight of God.<sup>e</sup>

Q. 87. What are we to believe concerning the resurrection?

A. We are to believe, that, at the last day, there shall be a general resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust: <sup>t</sup> when they that are then found alive shall in a moment be changed; and the selfsame bodies of the dead which are laid in the grave, being then again united to their souls for ever, shall be raised up by the power of Christ. <sup>u</sup> The bodies of the just, by the Spirit of Christ, and by virtue of his resurrection as their head, shall be raised in power, spiritual, and incorruptible, and made like to his glorious body: <sup>w</sup> and the bodies of the wicked shall be raised up in dishonor by him as an offended judge. <sup>x</sup>

Behold, I show you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. 1 Thess. iv. 15-17. For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep. For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. Q. 93. What is the moral law?

A. The moral law is the declaration of the will of God to mankind, directing and binding every one to personal, perfect, and perpetual conformity and obedience thereunto, in the frame and disposition of the whole man, soul and body,<sup>p</sup> and in performance of all those duties of holiness and righteousness which he oweth to God and man : q promising life upon the fulfilling, and threatening death upon the breach of it.<sup>r</sup>

Q. 94. Is there any use of the moral law to man since the fall?

A. Although no man since the fall can attain to righteousness and life by the moral law ;<sup>s</sup> yet there is great

Q. 116. What is required in the fourth commandment?

A. The fourth commandment requireth of all men the sanctifying or keeping holy to God such set times as he hath appointed in his Word, expressly one whole day in seven; which was the seventh from the beginning of the world to the resurrection of Christ, and the first day of the week ever since, and so to continue to the end of the world; which is the Christian Sabbath,<sup>z</sup> and in the New Testament called The Lord's Day.<sup>y</sup>

Q. 118. Why is the charge of keeping the Sabbath more specially directed to governors of families and other superiors?

A. The charge of keeping the Sabbath is more specially directed to governors of families and other superiors, because they are bound not only to keep it themselves, but to see that it be observed by all those that are under their charge; and because they are prone oft-times to hinder them by employments of their own.<sup>e</sup>

Q. 119. What are the sins forbidden in the fourth commandment?

A. The sins forbidden in the fourth commandment are, all omissions of the duties required,<sup>f</sup> all careless, negligent, and unprofitable performing of them, and being weary of them;<sup>g</sup> all profaning the day by idleness, and doing that which is in itself sinful;<sup>h</sup> and by all needless works, words, and thoughts, about our worldly employments and recreations.<sup>i</sup>

See Isa. lviii. 13.

A. The reasons annexed to the fourth commandment, the more to enforce it, are taken from the equity of it, God allowing us six days of seven for our own affairs, and reserving but one for himself, in these words, six days shalt thou labor and do all thy work :<sup>k</sup> from God's challenging a special propriety in that day, the seventh day is the Sabbath of the LORD thy God :<sup>l</sup> from the example of God, who in six days made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day : and from that blessing which God put upon that day, not only in sanctifying it to be a day for his service, but in ordaining it to be a means of blessing to us in our sanctifying it, wherefore the LORD blessed the Sabbath-day and hallowed it.<sup>m</sup>

Q. 121. Why is the word remember set in the beginning of the fourth commandment ?

A. The word remember is set in the beginning of the fourth commandment,<sup>n</sup> partly, because of the great benefit of remembering it, we being thereby helped in our preparation to keep it ;<sup>o</sup> and, in keeping it, better to keep all the rest of the commandments,<sup>p</sup> and to continue a thankful remembrance of the two great benefits of creation and redemption, which contain a short abridgment of religion :<sup>q</sup>

A. Baptism is not to be administered to any that are out of the visible Church, and so strangers from the covenant of promise, till they profess their faith in Christ, and obedience to him;<sup>m</sup> but infants descending from parents, either both or but one of them, professing faith in Christ, and obedience to him, are in that respect within the covenant, and are to be baptized.<sup>n</sup>

Q. 167. How is our Baptism to be improved by us?

A. The needful but much neglected duty of improving our Baptism, is to be performed by us all our life long, especially in the time of temptation, and when we are present at the administration of it to others,<sup>o</sup> by serious and thankful consideration of the nature of it, and of the ends for which Christ instituted it, the privileges and benefits

A. The Sacraments of Baptism and the Lord's Supper differ, in that Baptism is to be administered but once, with water, to be a sign and seal of our regeneration and ingrafting into Christ,<sup>q</sup> and that even to infants;<sup>r</sup> whereas the Lord's Supper is to be administered often, in the elements of bread and wine, to represent and exhibit Christ as spiritual nourishment to the soul,<sup>s</sup> and to confirm our continuance and growth in him,<sup>t</sup> and that only to such as are of years and ability to examine themselves.<sup>u</sup>

A. To pray in the name of Christ, is, in obedience to his command, and in confidence on his promises, to ask mercy for his sake:<sup>l</sup> not by bare mentioning of his name;<sup>m</sup> but by drawing our encouragement to pray, and our boldness, strength, and hope of acceptance in prayer, from Christ and his mediation.<sup>n</sup>

Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need. See 1 John v. 13-15.

Q. 181. Why are we to pray in the name of Christ?

A. Q. 182. How doth the Spirit help us to pray?

A. We not knowing what to pray for as we ought, the Spirit helpeth our infirmities, by enabling us to understand both for whom, and what, and how prayer is to be made; and by working and quickening in our hearts (although not in all persons, nor at all times in the same measure) those apprehensions, affections, and graces, which are requisite for the right performance of that duty.<sup>r</sup>
